DISPENSARY NEWS. With changing season and number of patients grow immensely! We thank all the Volunteers at our Dispensary for taking out their valuable time for the daily working of the premises.

PLWA NEWS: Annual Dinner function was held on Sunday, 30th March'14 in the front lawns of the Panchshila club. Perfect decor in traditional theme of orange and cream colours created cheerful seasonal ambience. Pleasant weather and live soft Bollywood/Sufi music by Mustafa Sagar Ali stimulated the mood. Tables had marigold flowers lit tea lights. Ladies came in vibrant ensembles and looked dazzling and lively. Complimentary photo shoot was done on the spot in traditional Rajasthani attire. To cheer the mood further all drinks snacks were on the house. Delicious Indian, Continental and Thai Cuisine laid out amid vibrant flowers were highly appreciated by one and all. The surprise event of the evening was lighting and floating the colourful night lanterns with good wishes for your loved ones adding festivity to the skyline. Lucky dip was taken out and 9 prizes were given away. Doctors, Donors, Club executives, Supporters and volunteers of the organization were acknowledged profusely by the President and Secretary. The PLWA Executive Committee team effort was well appreciated by all members and their guests.

BALWADI NEWS: Sports day was observed with lemon race, frog race, sweets, drinks and recitation of several poems in Hindi and English by the children. Balvadi children never looked so confident and well dressed before this we appreciate the teachers Laxmi & helper Rajkumari and for all the achievements of the children. Pushpa Sobti Scholarship Award of Rs.2, 000/- each to 4 all-rounder students were given at Balvadi. Some of the older children are going to bigger schools and fresh ones are coming in for the new session...
